Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 22 May 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	James C	For working incredibly well as a team during our STEM session this week. James and Ayan built a moving lego buggy and their problem solving skills, perseverance as well as behaviour was fantastic during the session. Well done boys!
	Ayan I
Scott	Ruby B	For consistently being a reliable, proactive and helpful member of the class. Your hard work, dedication and positive attitude are recognised and greatly appreciated. You are a true star and a wonderful role model.
	Myles B	For stepping out of your comfort zone and putting yourself forward for the Year 6 play auditions. Your courage, confident and willingness to try something new have been wonderful to see.
Backley	Sacha E	For demonstrating excellent teamwork and creativity while building a moving buggy, always contributing positively to group tasks and willingly helping others when needed. He has also shown great kindness and consideration towards his classmates.
	Oliver R	For making fantastic progress in his reading and writing throughout year 6. He has shown growing confidence, improved comprehension skills. His positive attitude, determination, and hard work have helped him become an independent and thoughtful learner.
Lloyd Webber	Ted C	For being a kind, caring, supportive and extremely polite class member. Ted always sets an excellent example to his peers. Well done!
	Charlie J	For demonstrating resilience and perseverance which have enabled him to develop his reading skills. Excellent work, Charlie!
Mae	Rim M	For her impressive spelling scores in our spelling tests this half term. It is clear that Rim learns her spellings carefully. Keep up the great work!
	Oscar G	For his excellent maths problem solving and reasoning skills in our maths lessons and for showing his working out clearly in his maths book.
Wonder	Olia M	For her excellent spelling scores this half term. You should be very proud of all your hard work.
	Samaira S	For being an amazing role model for the class. You have an amazing work ethic and your work is always of a high standard. Keep up the great work.
Darwin	Dilek B	Dilek joined Darwin on Monday and it feels that she has always been in our class. She has faced new challenges, such as the times table test practice and going to swimming. Dilek has faced all of these confidently. She has also completed every piece of work neatly, earning her pen licence straight away. We are pleased to have you in our class Dilek!
	Vy D	For being consistently kind and helpful to others, setting a wonderful example every day. Her positive attitude and hardworking approach have really stood out this week. Well done – keep it up!
West	Marni C	For achieving excellent scores in her spelling tests this half term after moving to a more challenging group after the Easter holiday.
	Luca W	For displaying excellent throwing, catching and batting skills during our first game of rounders in P.E. and for a great sporting attitude.
Uemura	Archie C	For working hard in English the last two weeks, he has produced so much work and proudly read his 100 word story to the class. Well done!

	Charlie N	For participating well in Maths, always willing to explain his methods and be one of the first to provide an answer at the start of the lesson.
Mandela	Joshua P	For a good amount of home reading this half term – the highest in the class.
	Zamira M	For good progress in benchmarking and times tables this term.
Parks	Austin P	For his amazing drumming.
	Alexa H	For her impressive throwing and catching skills in PE.
Pankhurst	Willow G, Carter D & Ranim M	For the persuasive advert encouraging the listener to come to Italy. Lovely use of imperative verbs, alliteration and description. Well done!

Well done to all our super achievers this week.