Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	The whole of Ennis Class	I am so proud of how incredibly well-behaved and helpful you all were yesterday during our creative Art and Poetry Day! You produced some fantastic work and did a brilliant job helping me with setting up and tidying away. I am so proud of you all and how you are showing your mature Year 6 side now. Well done, Ennis Class!
Scott	A huge well done to the whole class.	For your fantastic emotive poems based on our class book, Wonder. Miss Jasper was so impressed with all your work, especially the way you captured the thoughts and feelings of the characters. You really showed that you understood what the characters were going through and were able to express their emotions beautifully through your poetry. Hearing you read your poems aloud even brought a tear to Miss Jasper's eye! Miss Jasper cannot wait to display your wonderful poems in the classroom so that everyone can see and enjoy your amazing work.
Backley	Jaxon A	For always being such a warm and welcoming member of our class. You come into the classroom each morning with the biggest smile, spreading your kindness and positivity to everyone around you. You are such a caring and thoughtful person, and I especially love that you never forget to say,"Have a good lunch, Miss Woodyatt!" Your kind words always make me smile.
	Emily J	For always being willing to lend a helping hand. You are such a kind and thoughtful member of our class, and I can always rely on you. This week, I have been especially impressed with the resilience you have shown in maths. Even when you faced challenges, you kept going and persevered. Well done for showing such a positive attitude and determination!
Diamond	Star O	For her fantastic start to the year with her home learning. Star has achieved excellent spelling scores and reads almost every day! Well done for setting an excellent example to her peers!
	Emily G	For her fabulous work in English! The Cyclops (a mythical creature) is "on the loose" and Emily created a fantastic "Wanted" poster which included a detailed description and a reward in the hope that it is captured soon! Her work is always beautifully presented too! Well done!
Williams	Mila M	For writing a fantastic poem during poetry day. She included lots of interesting ideas to put in a magical box and presented her work neatly.
	Teddy S	For always working hard and behaving impeccably at all times.
Laine	Savio D	For his impressive coding skills in Scratch.
	Lottie W	For her impressive ability to perform a 360 degrees turn, in gymnastics, with balance and control.

Darwin	Alfie J	For your excellent improvement in Maths! It has been fantastic to see your confidence grow and watch you contribute more confidently during our lessons.
	Trevanne G	For your fantastic descriptive poem, your creative ideas and careful choice of language really brought your poem to life!
West	Joshua B	For working really hard to improve his handwriting and achieving his pen licence.
	Albie G	For making good contributions in English by offering ideas for strong vocabulary to use in poetry writing. It's good to see Albie's confidence to make contributions growing.
Uemura	Arjun V	For his excellent maths skills and for his creativity in English when thinking of descriptive phrases for his poem on Trees.
	Eliana C	For her contributions in RE each week. She is very insightful and is able to share her own knowledge with confidence to the rest of the class.
Mandela	Sienna S	For her cheerfulness, participation in class and good break times this week.
	Hudson W	For his positive attitude, improved focus and showing pride in his work.
Parks	Shanzay S	For being a superb helper in PE for the last 2 weeks because of your foot. You will one day make a great sports leader! Thank you!
	Louis D	For your enthusiasm in French lessons.
Pankhurst	Jensen D	For their fabulous cardboard sculpture inspired by James Lake.
	Charlotte D

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
