Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 04 September 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Charlie D	For his exceptional Welcome Board writing with fabulous vocabulary and advanced punctuation. His imaginative ideas and eloquent expression made his writing a real joy to read.
	Isabella H	For making a fantastic start to the school year. She is a friendly girl who has tried her hardest this week, consistently demonstrating excellent behaviour and polite manners. Well done!
Scott	Jacob R	For his insightful contributions during our PSHEE lessons, demonstrating a mature and wise outlook on how to identify and maintain positive friendships and relationships. Well done, Jacob, for your excellent contributions and thoughtful participation!
	Sophie R & Natalia T	For helping to incorporate both Miss Jasper and Miss Maw into our outdoor classroom display, which is inspired by Julian Opie. Both girls not only created their own fantastic picture of themselves, but also created an additional picture of their teachers to add to the display alongside the artwork created by the rest of Scott Class. Thank you!
Backley	Jack F	For starting the new year Brilliantly and working so hard.
	Alexia L	For always choosing to do the right thing and setting a fantastic example to others.
Diamond	Ronnie S	For an excellent start to the new academic year. Mrs Tonks was particularly impressed with his writing for the Welcome Board. Keep up the good work!
	Millie F	For being such a helpful member of Diamond class and setting a fantastic example of superb behaviour for learning. Well done Millie!
Williams	Rhiti V	For working incredibly hard on her artwork and writing for our welcome board and should be very proud of the effort she has put into it. She has shown great creativity, care and attention to detail throughout her work.
	George S	For a fantastic start to Year 5 and he has settled into the routines and expectations of the year exceptionally well. He has consistently demonstrated excellent behaviour and a positive attitude towards his learning.
Laine	Isla B	For her impressive, detailed sketch of Cleo Laine.
	Ted A	For his beautiful handwriting and presentation.
Darwin	Trevon G	For always trying his best and never giving up, even when he was finding things tricky. You have shown fantastic determination and a brilliant attitude towards your learning.
	Rose Y & Ellie L	For being such a kind and caring member of our class, always making sure that others are included and have someone to play with at playtime.
West	Lewis C	For having an amazing start full of good manners, focus and quiet, hard work.
	Nancy R	For showing her best qualities and embodying all of the Golden Rules already.
Uemura	Brody L	For showing excellent listening skills and for already showing a great attitude to learning!

	Grace S	For her dedication to reading and showing enthusiasm for anything book related this first week back!
Mandela	Darcey J	For her active listening, showing eye-contact, copying countdowns, and stopping what she is doing when the teacher is speaking. Well done and keep it up.
	Lewis S	For his friendliness, enthusiasm and good listening. He was also the first person to bring in his own reading book to read on the very first day of school. Well done and keep it up.
Parks	Hunter R	For a very settled start to life in Parks Class. He has been helpful to both children and adults. Thank you Hunter and I hope this continues for the rest of the year.
	Emily B	It was so lovely to see your confidence has grown. Seeing you speak clearly during our drama this week was great! Well done!
Pankhurst	Reuben M	For a great start to Year 3 and completing a very good drawing of Emmeline Pankhurst.
	Jack C	For showing patience as adults get to know him.

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
