Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 05 June 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Rose B	Rose for showing kindness and patience by helping another pupil with his writing, offering support and encouragement throughout the task. Her positive attitude and willingness to help enabled her classmate to feel more confident and make good progress. Thank you for always being so kind and helpful!
	Josh C	For showing amazing dedication by learning most of his play lines off by heart during the half-term holiday. His hard work and commitment have helped him feel more confident and prepared in the play rehearsals.
Scott	Anushka P	For working hard to learn their lines, adapting their performances thoughtfully throughout rehearsals and for showing increasing commitment throughout the rehearsal process. Well done and keep it up.
	Beau H
Backley	Hezekiah I	For being a kind and caring member of the class and always helps others when they need support.
	Aliza S	For her enthusiasm and effort when publishing her narrative called Rock, Paper and Scissors. She has worked hard and presented her work beautifully.
Lloyd Webber	Lola G	For her excellent participation and focus in maths lessons. Well done!
	George F	For showing perseverance in English lessons. George has worked extremely hard this year and his editing skills are developing well. He should be very proud of his efforts!
Mae	Alana B	For her excellent setting description that she wrote this week inspired by our work on MacBeth. Alana used fantastic higher-level vocabulary and challenged herself to use a semi-colon in her writing too. She also used varied sentence lengths for effect – well done!
	Teddy W	For his great maths work this week and showing his working out carefully when converting between km and m. Teddy also explained how to solve conversion problems correctly to others.
Wonder	Wade M	We all enjoy it when you read aloud to the class Wade, always with enthusiasm and passion. Great content to your stories too.
	Sophie R	For her excellent participation in PE this term. She shows both skills and sportsmanship. Well done Sophie.
Darwin	Aaron C	For making a fantastic effort to participate more actively in class discussions by putting your hand up and sharing your ideas. Your growing confidence is wonderful to see. Well done!
	Ellie G	For kindness and willingness to help others, consistently being a thoughtful and supportive member of our class community.
West	Harry H	For showing great recall of previous learning in history when re-capping knowledge about the Romans and Anglo-Saxons, before starting our Vikings topic.
	Annabelle H	For writing a good prediction for “The Boy at the Back of the Class” using evidence from the blurb to support her ideas.

Uemura	Azire R	For his focus and effort this week blitzing his tables and working so hard to quickly recall them.
	Lottie W	For a great attitude towards her school work this week. You have produced some excellent work in your book, keep it up!
Mandela	Jaxon A	For a calm and settled start to the last half term of the year, making some mature choices and some pleasing writing. Keep it up.
	Poppy B	For an excellent start at Hurst, participating in class, working hard and showing pride in the beautifully neat presentation of her work. Welcome to the Hurst family.
Parks	Teddy S	For their impressive use of vocabulary in their descriptive narrative about a lighthouse.
	Becky D
Pankhurst	Bobby N	For his pleasing writing this week on the lighthouse keeper.
	Dominic C	For his careful drawing of The Leaning Tower of Pisa in art this week.

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
