Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 09 July 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Abigail H	For bringing such lovely energy into the classroom every day. She never fails to greet me in the morning and ask how I am. I have loved having you sit at the front of the class all year to get an injection of energy and positivity that radiates from you.
	Ayan I	For your developing confidence throughout Year 6. I have loved getting to know you better during this final term of Year 6. You are such a caring and kind friend with a great sense of humour and I am so glad I have been able to see that side of you shine this term.
Scott	Harrison D	Well done for being a responsible and reliable member of our class, consistently completing your classroom responsibilities with care and without the need for reminders.
	Barney W	For working hard to develop his performance for the Year 6 play, focusing on projecting his voice, using expression, and maintaining strong acting in the background, even when he is not delivering lines. Well done!
Backley	Armin P	For participating in the drumming activities at our Song Festival, opening the African medley, and showing enthusiasm throughout.
	Arjun M	For being a friendly, kind member of Backley Class who is always considerate, supportive, and encouraging towards his classmates.
Lloyd Webber	William S	For his amazing homework tasks throughout the year and particularly his final piece which was a Lego animation based on our Crime and Punishment topic. Mrs Tonks, along with Lloyd Webber class, were absolutely wowed!
	Amelia Y	For her many out of school achievements. Amelia recently took part in a Triathlon and although had a nasty fall, still completed the event. Well done for showing excellent perseverance and resilience! We at Hurst, are all very proud of you!
Mae	Kamai E	Both for their enthusiasm and commitment to singing both in assemblies and year group practices. Mrs Tonks is hoping to see them both in the senior choir next year as they will be a real asset.
	Luti M
Wonder	The whole of Wonder Class	For their amazing fairground rides, the effort that you put into theses was amazing. Remember team work is the dream work.
Darwin	Dhruvika P	For creating an informative poster all about Viking life. Dhruvika's poster was eye-catching, well organised, and full of interesting facts. She even included a mini quiz to engage her audience!
	Caleb K	Caleb consistently demonstrates active listening and comes into the classroom calmly, ready to learn. He sets an excellent example to those around him through his positive attitude and respectful behaviour.
West	Pippa H	For her outstanding behaviour and work ethic all year. Pippa sets a great example to others in all lessons by staying calm and focused, making considered contributions and consistently producing work of a high standard.
	Albie M	For his excellent behaviour and being a lovely, friendly member of West class all year. Albie shows resilience when finding things a challenge and always tries to produce work to the best of his ability.

Uemura	Cam H	For being an amazing Uemura pupil all year. He was a welcome addition to the class in September and has been kind, caring and thoughtful throughout. Cam is always making the right choices and sticks to the golden rules. Well done!!
	Emma A	For all her hard work in class and at home showing dedication to homework tasks and home reading. Emma has been an especially kind and thoughtful classmate to one particular peer which has been wonderful to see.
Mandela	Sophie S	For earning the most house points in the class over the year. Congratulations and keep it up!
	Arthur A	For the most frequent home reading in the class over the year. Congratulations and keep it up!
Parks	Isabelle O	For her impressive use of vocabulary.
	Kit O	For working really hard in maths.
Pankhurst	Florence R	For her amazing achievement in year 3! Your confidence and studies have progressed so much this year. Mrs Keen is very proud of you.
	Abigail B & Ronnie J	For your amazing progress in reading this year!

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
