Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 09 October 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Sienna R	For your confidence, maturity and thoughtful responses with our visitors this week. Your conduct was noticed by several adults and I am so proud of you, how you were able to express yourself so positively to represent our school community.
	Oscar G	For your amazing, well punctuated and laid out dialogue that we have been working on this week.
Scott	Max H	For his excellent attitude towards Maths this week, approaching lessons with a positive work ethic, persevering through challenges and applying himself consistently across lessons and assessments. Miss Jasper is incredibly proud of you - keep up the fantastic work!
	Alice F	For her incredible cartoon strip in science, explaining how electricity travels to our homes. Your work was created in the true style of a comic strip - it was engaging, informative and beautifully presented. Miss Jasper can't wait to display your fantastic work. Well done, Alice!
	Scott Class	Thank you all so much for your fantastic engagement across all lessons this week. I have particularly enjoyed all your singing and dancing in Science and English! You have brought so much energy, enthusiasm and joy to our lessons, and I have had so much fun teaching you all. It truly is a joy and a privilege to be your teacher. Keep being your jazzy selves!
Backley	Rex G	Rex has worked incredibly hard on his behaviour and attitude towards learning this week. I am so proud of the positive progress he is making and he should be incredibly proud of himself too! He has also been a FANTASTIC role model and buddy to the children in EYFS and KS1, showing kindness, patience and responsibility. Keep up the amazing work, Rex - you are doing a brilliant job! Well done!
	The Whole Class	Backley Class have worked incredibly hard this week! They have shown fantastic determination and perseverance in their maths learning and have done a brilliant job when editing and improving their writing. I am so proud of the effort, focus and positive attitude you have all shown this week. Keep up the amazing work, Backley Class – you should all be incredibly proud of yourselves!
Diamond	Jacob W	For their fantastic poems about what they would put in their special box. Both poets demonstrated amazing vocabulary and a vivid imagination. Well done!
	Meghan T
Williams	Dottie J	For always working hard in all of her lessons. She has shown real enthusiasm for reading this term, is always eager to read and has been recording lots of her reading in her reading record.
	Gabriel G	For participating brilliantly in his lesson on multiples which he has thoroughly enjoyed learning about. He also shared his ideas in our Harvest Assembly.
Laine	Cam H	For his fantastic help around the classroom and his brilliant sorting and tidying up skills.
	Yemi A	For her impressive use of vocabulary in geography lessons.
Darwin	Hallie T	For her improvement in her behaviour and attitude towards learning. She has been following instructions carefully, making positive choices and actively participating in lessons.

	Abigail B	For her excellent participation in Roman Day! She showed fantastic enthusiasm throughout the day and fully immersed herself in all of the activities.
West	Anderson J	For displaying better focus in class and trying hard to complete tasks in the given time.
	Alfie B	For working well in his maths group; staying focused and trying hard.
Uemura	Arthur A	For his excellent attitude towards learning in the last week. He has tried to hard to complete the work and has participated well in lessons!
	Primrose P	For her excellent effort when subtracting and adding with an exchange. She has shown resilience and has improved so much so much even in a few days!! Well done!
Mandela		The Whole Year Group!
		For the incredible effort and perseverance shown with their cardboard sculptures which for some included the addition of texture. The Year 3 team were amazed by their creativity!
