Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 11 September 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Aimee E	For your impeccable behaviour and amazing work ethic. You are such a great role model to everyone in Ennis Class. Well done!
	Isaac P	For your fantastic work in Maths. Not only do you finish your work to an amazing standard but you also help others and Mrs Chitambara to make our Maths lesson even better. Your kindness and positive attitude are fantastic!
Scott	Emin C	For your patience and kindness when meeting your buddy. Your caring and gentle approach helped your buddy feel comfortable and at ease. It was wonderful to see that, by the end, both of you were smiling, playing, and enjoying your time together. Well done, Emin!
	Olia M	For taking such immense pride and care in your work. Your books are absolutely beautiful across the curriculum and it is wonderful to see the effort and attention to detail you put into everything you do. Well done, Olia!
Backley	Amelia Y	You have shown such fantastic determination in your work this week! You always try your best and never give up. Even when something feels tricky. Your positive attitude and hard work have been wonderful to see. Keep believing in yourself and being the very best you can be - you should be so proud of yourself!
	William S	A special thank you to William, who has guided me this week when I have struggled to work the board or not known which way it is to the KS1 playground! You are always looking out for others and helping people feel welcome. You should be so proud of yourself – what a wonderful way to start the year! A HUGE thank you to Backley Class for helping me settle into my first official week at Hurst! You have all been so supportive and I am extremely proud of you! Let's keep it up!
Diamond	Amber A	For impeccable manners this week, Amber is always polite and courteous to all members of staff and all of her peers. Well done Amber!
	Luca W	Luca has worked really hard this week, he is an excellent example to his peers for following the Golden Rules and showing great active listening skills across all lessons. A great week Luca, well done.
Williams	Ezmay S	For her excellent behaviour, always following our golden rules and being kind to others.
	Summer D	For working hard and producing a wonderfully creative page showing her knowledge about space.
Laine	Everly H	For their impressive reflective work in art which involved reviewing and commenting on all the work in their sketch books.
	Teddy G
Darwin	Leon M	For demonstrating excellent design and painting skills, creating work that is thoughtful, detailed and carefully executed.
	Millie B	For being an excellent role model in our class! She consistently follows the Golden Rules, is always willing to help others and participates enthusiastically in class activities. She sets a fantastic example for others.

West	Eloise H	For setting a great example to others through her engagement with all lessons and regularly making contributions by answering questions.
	Sonny W	For taking great care over the presentation of his work in all subjects.
Uemura	Lucas L	For making excellent vocabulary choices in English this week!
	Sophie S	For always putting her hand up and contributing, especially in maths. Well done!
Mandela	Harrison L	For a marked improvement in his joined-up handwriting. Well done and keep it up.
	Emily M	For her enthusiasm in gymnastics and PE, and for her growing participation in class. Well done and keep it up.
Parks	Evie P	For showing the golden rule "we are kind and gentle" throughout the whole week. Well done, Evie!
	Alfie B	For your excellent ideas when describing Iron Man. Well done!
Pankhurst	Mo T	For sharing his amazing prior knowledge on magnets for our first lesson this week on our topic forces and magnets.
	Alba F	For sharing great ideas during class inputs so regularly.

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
