KS2 Achievers

W/E: 13 November 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Alaya B	You consistently show incredible effort and determination in everything you do, whether writing lengthy pieces of work or working your socks off in maths. I love reading your detailed self-reviews, which beautifully reflect the pride you take in your learning and the hard work you put into everything – I am so proud of you! Keep it up!
	Alex B	Your calm, thoughtful and reflective nature makes you such a lovely person to have in our class. You consistently work hard, approach everything with a positive attitude and are always so easy-going and pleasant to be around. Keep being you, Alex!
Scott
	Ayla W Olivia F	For a fantastic piece of writing this week! Your formal letters of complaint, inspired by our class book Wonder, were incredibly convincing. You both even had Miss Jasper a little frightened by your assertiveness and directness! You truly captured the character and voice of Julian's mother, raising excellent points that would certainly have made Mr Tushman reconsider his decision. Well done!
Backley	Austin J	For showing fantastic determination and a brilliant attitude towards his learning this week! I have been particularly impressed with the emotive language you used in your email writing, demonstrating real creativity and thoughtfulness. It has been lovely to see you working so hard and taking pride in your work. Keep up the amazing effort!
	Darasimi A	For showing fantastic resilience and determination in her learning this week! Despite not feeling your best, you have continued to show a brilliant attitude towards your work and have put in so much effort. I have been particularly impressed with the fantastic, detailed paragraphs she has created in her email writing. Her hard work and positive attitude have really stood out this week.
Diamond	Bobby W	Both for their brilliantly written radio news reports based on the Greek myth "Perseus and Medusa" Both Bobby and George really thought about the language they included so that the listener was thoroughly engaged and didn't switch over to another radio channel. Well done to you both!
	George S
Williams	Brooke F	For working incredibly hard in all lessons. She worked hard to edit her radio report and used high level punctuation including a semi colon.
	Chloe M	For being a very kind friend and looking out for others, making them feel welcome.
Laine	Keeley J	For her fantastic artwork, using the lifting technique when creating a watercolour background.
	Cameron S	For writing a powerful Remembrance Day Haiku and trying really hard with his joined- up handwriting.
Darwin	Joshua W	For his excellent behaviour and fantastic focus in all lessons. He consistently demonstrates a positive attitude towards his learning and always strives to do his very best. Keep up the brilliant work!
	Alara S	For her fantastic participation in lessons this week. She has contributed thoughtfully and meaningfully, sharing her ideas and making valuable contributions to class discussions. Well done!

West	Senna D	The amazing presentation of her written work. Her handwriting is beautiful, she always uses a ruler when underlining and her work is always lined up with the margin. Luckily, the quality of her writing also matches the quality of her cursive script so I look forward to marking her work every day.
	Vinny I	Being such a helpful and kind member of the class. He always volunteers to tidy up after art, washing paint palettes and glue pots, and does an excellent job. We are lucky to have someone so conscientious in West class and he makes us proud.
Uemura	Libby T	For settling in so well to Year Four and Uemura class. Also, for working so hard in each lesson and getting 10/10 in your first spelling test! Keep it up!
	Poppy B	For using her own initiative by researching and producing an excellent booklet all about Remembrance Day. It was detailed and well- illustrated! Miss Warwick was very impressed!!
Mandela	Eden N	For a settled and hard-working week, especially maths. Well done and keep it up.
	Emily M	For growing confidence which has been lovely to see and her enthusiastic column subtraction with exchanging.
Parks	Dollis M	For being a superstar! You are always following all of the golden rules band are a fantastic role model for everybody in the class. Thank you for being you!
	Anvay J	For your fantastic description of Mr Twit. Not only was your work fantastic, your handwriting was beautiful too! Well done!
Pankhurst	Eliana A	For her consistent ability to master column calculations in subtraction, addition and multiplication. WOW!
	Jessica M	For her Twit's character description this week and independently ensuring all the success criteria was ticked off.

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
