Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 19 June 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Emily L	For their energy and commitment to all play rehearsals. They are both not only ensuring that their own behaviour, acting and speaking are top notch but also helping teachers to organise and support the rest of the year group.
	Finn M
Scott	Finley H	For his dedication during rehearsals, learning his lines so well and for bringing great humour to his performance. Well done, Finley!
	Swara S	For her hard work and creativity in producing a comic strip written in French. Well done!
Backley	Tanya D & Elia R	For incredible talent and creativity in art lessons. They have worked hard to help with a maths display, using their artistic skills to make it attractive and they have painted a fantastic Tiny the tortoise!
	George H	For working incredibly hard on his acting skills, showing dedication, confidence, and a real commitment to improving his performances.
Lloyd Webber	Rex G	Rex produced excellent work in this week's history lesson. He took on the role of a lawyer in a crime and punishment case in which the class were comparing Anglo-Saxon and modern British law. He gave well-structured, persuasive arguments and showed a good understanding of how justice has changed over time. Well done Rex!
	Austin J	For being such a kind and thoughtful class member and showing empathy towards others. Thank you, Austin!
Mae	Harrie D	For always presenting her work neatly with beautifully joined handwriting. Well done, Harrie.
	Isabella H	For her excellent reading comprehension score from our test during our recent assessment week. Isabella used evidence from the text to support her answers, well done! Keep up the great reading!
Wonder	George S	For his excellent guitar work in the music concert. I heard it was AMAZING. Well done everyone.
	Olivia W	For working really hard in maths this week. I'm glad you feel that you have learned about different units in measuring and how to convert them from mm to cm and cm to m.
Darwin	To the whole of Darwin	For their behaviour on their trip to Chislehurst caves. They followed instructions promptly and demonstrated respect for others Their positive attitude contributed to a successful and enjoyable experience.
West	George S	For a detailed piece of writing in RE about making the right choices when listening to our conscience.
	Ronnie S	For trying really hard to keep the golden rules. Ronnie has produced some good work and made the right choices regarding behaviour.
Uemura	Jack L	For being an excellent role model in class. He always makes the right decisions and listens intently in every lesson!
	Albie Torrison	For his amazing contributions in class this week, well done for excellent written work in English too!

Mandela	Arthur A	For his outstanding home reading all through the year. A shining example to us all (parents included). Well done and keep it up.
	Zamira M	For her improved home reading and times table learning over the year. Well done and keep it up.
Parks	Edie S	For her excellent demonstration of how to calculate the column methods for addition and subtraction.
	Chloe K	For her impressive work in science.
Pankhurst	Isla W	For their careful etchings of The Leaning Tower of Pisa
	Carter D

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
