Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 20 November 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Archie L	For the fantastic effort you are putting into improving your punctuation and editing your work so carefully. I am so proud of how hard you are working to make your writing even better – keep it up!
	Harriet T	For always bringing such a cheerful and positive attitude to the classroom. You are always so willing to help me and make my day that little bit easier with your lovely attitude and helpful nature!
Scott	Harriet W	For her excellent hard work in maths this week, particularly when solving calculations involving fractions. It has been wonderful to see your confidence grow. Well done for all your effort and determination. Keep up the fantastic work!
	Jenson B	For his wonderful engagement in writing lessons this week and for fully immersing himself in his description of the abandoned abbey. You worked hard to incorporate all the senses to enrich your writing and did a fantastic job of creating and maintaining a creepy atmosphere throughout. Well done.
Backley	Alessio S	For thoroughly impressing me with his fantastic determination and positive attitude towards his learning, particularly in Maths and English. You have shown real perseverance in your arithmetic, achieving some brilliant scores that reflect your hard work. Your descriptive writing has also been wonderful, with some fantastic vocabulary and detail bringing your ideas to life. You should be incredibly proud of yourself. Keep up the amazing work!
	Honey W	I have been absolutely blown away by your fantastic descriptive writing! You have shown incredible creativity and imagination, carefully selecting ambitious vocabulary and using the five senses to really bring your description to life. Her writing was full of wonderful detail, allowing the reader to truly picture the scene she was describing. Keep up the amazing writing!
Diamond	Harper H	Welcome to Hurst Primary School. You have settled into Diamond class beautifully and we are so pleased that you have chosen to join our Hurst family.
	Ollie R	For demonstrating such a positive attitude in all lessons this week and for being such a fantastic classroom helper.
Williams	Dhruvika P	For excellent maths work on ordering fractions. She always presents her work incredibly neatly.
	Ruby F	For her enthusiasm and always getting involved in lessons. She readily volunteers answers, contributes ideas and participates positively in class discussions.
Laine	Phoebe F	For her impressive 3D collage in art.
	Jack L	For his impressive mathematical explanations.
Darwin	Florence R	For her fantastic descriptive writing this week! She has made excellent use of ambitious language to build suspense and carefully selected powerful verbs to create impact and bring her writing to life. Well done!
	Charlie C	For creating an excellent clay replica of the human ear, demonstrating fantastic attention to detail and taking great care to recreate its features.

West	Ruby J	For her great writing this week re-telling the story of “Escape from Pompeii”. Ruby used dialogue effectively to build tension and develop the characters and tried her hardest to include all elements of the success criteria.
	Austin P	Congratulations to Austin for being awarded his pen licence. His writing is now always well-presented and correctly joined. Keep up the good work!
Uemura	Elsie B	For all her efforts in Maths this week. She has participated well and shown good use of mental maths skills. Well done!
	Robyn M	For her excellent descriptive writing, using fantastic vocabulary and perfect speech punctuation when using dialogue in her story about an escape from Pompeii!
Mandela	Grayson G	For their effort and progress in writing this term. This was also noticed by teachers from another school who looked at their English books. Well done and keep it up.
	Joshua P
Parks	Dougie S	For your very creative “Marvellous Medicine” recipes. You also included all of the features needed for a recipe too. Well done!
	Lucy W
Pankhurst	Neve S	For your increasing confidence in class to contribute and for your creative Marvellous Medicine recipes. Well done.
	Imogen E

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
