Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 25 September 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Lewis N	For his incredible drawing skills and the fantastic piece of art that he created based on the book cover Wonder.
	Lyla H	For being such a fabulous helper in the classroom. You are so organised and can independently organise and complete any job in the classroom (and be one step ahead of me even!) Thank you, Lyla!
Scott	Anthony W	For working hard to create a piece of art inspired by our class book Wonder, experimenting with a range of watercolours and thoughtfully choosing vocabulary to describe himself, which beautifully captured his WONDERFUL personality.
	Olivia W	For having a fantastic attitude towards her learning and for always showing great engagement and determination to achieve the very best she can across all lessons. Well done, Olivia – you have made an excellent start to Year 6!
Backley	William B	For creating such an amazing "Wonder" – inspired self-portrait using watercolours. Your creativity, attention to detail and careful use of colour have really made your artwork stand out. Well done William!
	Ava G	Since the beginning of Year 6, you have always been someone I can rely on. You are such a huge help around the classroom and are always willing to lend a helping hand, whether it's supporting others or helping to keep our classroom running smoothly. Your kindness, responsibility and willingness to help others never go unnoticed.
Diamond	Annabelle H	Both for making an excellent start to home learning in Year 5, reading consistently at home and learning spelling words carefully for their weekly tests. Well done and keep up the fantastic work!
	Albie M
Williams	Lyla C	For being a hardworking and enthusiastic pupil. She listens brilliantly and is attentive during lessons. Lyla showed great creativity when writing a wanted poster about a Cyclops and could hardly stop! She has also completed lots of homework and should be very proud of the effort she has put in.
	Lemuel K	He has shown kindness towards others particularly when he noticed that a friend was upset. He has also been working very hard in English lessons and at home, putting lots of effort into his writing.
Laine	Emma A	For her impressive rounding up and down skills in maths.
	Joshua R	For his amazing work in every subject, despite not being able to use his dominant hand. He has displayed huge resilience and perseverance.
Darwin	Evie H	For writing a fantastic poem using powerful adjectives and strong verbs to create vivid imagery. You confidently shared your wonderful ideas with the class and inspired bothers with your creativity.
	Sam W	For your excellent maths skills and for presenting your work so neatly. You have shown great care, accuracy and pride in your work.
West	Victoria R	For showing great understanding in maths and clearly explaining the answer to a problem to the class.
	Ines T	For effective note taking during the lesson about Hadrian's wall in History and producing neat, accurate writing using her notes.

Uemura	Sofia O	Sofia has worked so hard this week, she was a whizz at Roman numerals in Maths and has created so many descriptive phrases in poetry this week in English. Well done!
	Sahara C	For her dedication to home reading and keeping excellent notes in her reading record! Great effort!
Mandela	Benas R	For his cheerful friendliness, making improvements with his handwriting and for good participation in lessons.
	Bailey L	For a positive attitude towards her lessons, an impressive effort in writing with extra details for added interest and for making steady progress towards joining her handwriting.
Parks	Noah S	For your fantastic attitude to school work this week. You have shown great determination when finding things tricky, but also just got your head down and got on with your work without fussing. Keep it up!
	George H	WOW! Miss Stewart and I were so happy with your maths work yesterday. Not only did you do it all independently, you got it all correct too! Well done George - it really was great to see!
Pankhurst	Joshua P	For demonstrating fantastic cardboard joining skills in preparation for building his sculpture next week.
	Mya A	For her hardworking attitude in all lessons by contributing to class discussions and giving every task your best. Keep it up!

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
