Hurst Primary School
KS2 Achievers

W/E: 26 June 2026

Class	Pupil	Achievement
Ennis	Daisy L	For being incredibly helpful in the classroom during the recent heatwave, always taking on extra jobs with a positive attitude. Thank you so much Daisy!
	Emily L	For unexpectedly revealing her incredible dance skills and wiggly hips during dance rehearsals yesterday. She had us all wondering when she had been secretly training to become the star of the dance!
Scott	Abigail C	For her honest and insightful responses during your private reflection about building body confidence. Your thoughtful approach and willingness to reflect demonstrated maturity and self -awareness. Well done for engaging so meaningfully with this important topic.
	Harrison D	Well done for your focus and engagement during our DT lesson while planning to build a handmade buggy. You demonstrated good research skills and an excellent use of technical vocabulary when annotating your design.
Backley	Zander J	For a strong work ethic and approaching all lessons with enthusiasm. You always participate in class activities and make valuable contributions.
	Jack S	For demonstrating excellent planning skills throughout the motorised buggy project, carefully considering each stage of the design and construction process. He worked well as a team, made thoughtful decisions, and adapted his ideas when necessary.
Lloyd Webber	The whole class	For all of Lloyd Webber class who have negotiated a challenging week of hot weather and a tricky DT project so brilliantly! You have demonstrated many excellent values: perseverance, resilience, and collaborative working – well done to you all!
Mae	The whole class	The whole class for their amazing effort during our D.T project this week where we have been making moving fairground rides. The teams worked so well together and the products they have created bare fantastic! Well done everyone.
Wonder	William M, Wade M, Emin C, Jenson B, Ollie P	I loved the way you worked as a team this week to create your Ferris wheel in DT. No arguments, just calm discussions. Perfect.
	Emily R & Malcolm A	Excellent singing this week. I was blown away by its beauty and the fact that you knew all the words. Spectacular.
Darwin	Lyla C	For producing an excellent leaflet about Spain. Lyla took great care with her work, creating a detailed map of Span and carefully drawing the Spanish flag.
	Arlo N	For showing fantastic determination in swimming, completing an impressive 700m. He stayed focussed on his own goals while also being supportive of others. Well done Arlo, on this excellent achievement!
West	The whole class	For their behaviour and good listening during our trip to Chislehurst Caves and generally coping well with the extremely hot weather this week. Well done everyone!

Uemura	Sienna S	For her sensible attitude towards school this week, especially in the heat. You always set a good example for your table too, well done!
	Cam H	For always participating well and giving 100% to each lesson. Cam has achieved well in any making activity this year and has been useful helping others to make their Viking boats, or mini Norway shirts!
Mandela	The Whole Class	The whole class for staying calm, safe, sensible and resilient during the heatwave.
Parks	Elsie S	For her impressive DT skills.
	Sonny W	For his excellent progress in science.
Pankhurst	Alara S	Both for the regular support towards others and increased participation in class this week! It has been noted and well received. Thank you.
	Ellie I

Well done to all our super achievers this week.
